

Press Release

South Salt Lake City Police Department
2835 South Main Street
801-412-3600

Date: August 11, 2020

Subject: Sexual Assault Investigation

Point of Contact: PIO Danielle Croyle (801) 520-2552 dcroyle@southsaltlakecity.com

Release:

South Salt Lake Investigation Team is working on locating and identifying additional females that may have been victimized by a Hispanic male in his 30's. The suspect offers to provide a ride for the victim(s). Once the victim is inside the car, the suspect drives behind a building. He physically and sexually assaults them. He verbally threatens to harm them as he throws them out of the car and drives away from the area.

South Salt Lake has had three cases under similar circumstances.

(16G007668) 2016 - 900 W 3300 S - Victim is approached on roadway and offered a ride by a Hispanic male in a red SUV. Suspect drives victim behind a building. Physically and sexually assaults her. He throws her out of the car and threatens to harm the victim as he drives away.

(17G006289) 2017 - 1300 S Main St - Victim is approached on roadway and offered a ride by Hispanic male in a blue minivan. Suspect drives victim behind a building. He physically and sexually assaults her. He throws her out of the car and threatens to harm the victim as he drives away.

(20G000160) 2020 - 2200 S W. Temple - Victim is approached on roadway and offered a ride by a Hispanic male in a blue passenger vehicle. Suspect drives victim behind a building. He physically and sexually assaults her. He throws her out of the vehicle and drives away.

If anyone has been victimized or has information about any of the cases, you are encouraged to contact SVU Detective Mullins at (801) 412-3645 or smullins@sslc.com.

